

RESPONSES TO DISCERNMENT

How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is a joyful, hope-filled and servant community?

6	A Joyful, Hope-filled & Servant Community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fostering a sense of community around action rather than just going to mass • Priests being open to allowing parishioners to instigate initiatives in the Parish • The rules need to be reviewed so that everyone feels included eg. Gay people or divorced people
8	In Matthew 6:25-34 we discerned the Kingdom is truly now, not just in the future. It is not about 'ruling' but living as equals in relationship with each other, alive in Jesus. In order for us to become a 'Kingdom' servant community we must start with a servant leadership that does not seek to rule, rejects clericalism, recognises we all belong and are valued through our common Baptism, and which calls on and utilises the gifts and talents of all. Clericalism in its many manifestations stifles a servant community. Equally we must embrace the development of small communities where people are seen and heard within parishes, truly essential to parish renewal. Small groups are personal and relationship-driven. That's how Jesus worked in his ministry. In his sitting down with people, speaking his word to them and in the breaking of bread, Jesus gave hope and that's the 'joy' we too need to rediscover in the celebration of the Eucharist - witnessed so clearly in home masses.
7	1. Listening to the passage of scripture I feel drawn to..... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The fraternal love of Early Christians - Notice how the Holy Spirit moved among all members building up the whole Community of faith. We also exhibit this as a community, but not to the same degree. 2. Listening to the Holy Spirit through the voices of this group, I have heard..... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Participation emphasised in the Mass at all levels and hospitality. - Spontaneous response to the moment of need. - Hearing the Holy Spirit speak through each of us. - Gathering together in a variety of different ways so as to get to know each other better and include all people in the Parish Family. - Make a conscious effort to speak to people who are visitors or strangers to our Parish Family. - Reach out to people who have stopped coming to Mass. - Greeting people coming to Mass is among the most important things we do. - Share and have the courage to follow through with others, and trust in God! 3. From my prayer today liste
8	Thinking Nationally: Consider how our Bishops might connect Pastorally to the people in their Diocese – sometimes less formally. Bishops (as decision makers) to agree together on decisions made in leading dioceses. Action an Arbour day in synch with the environmental message from Pope Francis. For example - every parishioner plants a tree! Demonstrate leadership on issues such as euthanasia, refugees etc and present an alternative. Advertise Church services – celebrations at Christmas and Easter more widely. Introduce a 'National Day of Prayer' – exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in every Parish with participating Priests. Introduce via mass media a campaign that shows what we do and why we do it eg. 'life be in it'. 'Sharing the Joy and sincerity'. Gather Catholics/Christians together at regular intervals at a national level with Catholic speakers from Australia and overseas. Advertise via local diocese and parishes. Share locations. Suggest bi-annual. Regions to supp

8	As a Ministerial Public Juridical Person (MPJP) we are called to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Share our JOY – the good news of Ministerial Public Juridical Persons (MPJPs) in Australia. The establishment of these ECCLESIAL COMMUNITIES is a great sign of hope in our church in these times. • Commit to DIALOGUE, especially with those whom we serve. We must learn from the experience of others – of their joys and hopes, their challenges and inspiration. Our tradition teaches us that listening in a spirit of humility is the way to true Wisdom. • Develop a stance of INVITATION: Support links across churches, within and beyond Australia, especially with similar groups of GOD’S FAITHFUL eg, other Ministerial PJs, Manquehue Movement in Chile... • Claim our voice and our place at the table of CHURCH GOVERNANCE, accepting both the challenge and responsibility that accompany our establishment. We understand ourselves as STEWARDS who have been gifted with a sacred trust.
5	A yearning to see the church in action and recognise Jesus’s values in life today. Take care of the environment. Be appreciative of the gifts God has given us and use them to help the disadvantaged and those on the fringes of the church. Be welcoming and joyful in our ministries to one another including the poor and needy. Look after the elderly and sick in our parish and neighbourhood. Thank you
15	Per Jesus example - Direct away from guilt and damnation and focus on love, joy and peace. Mandatory education (eg: through an encyclical) of what it means to be a servant, eg: that it is more important for clergy to serve rather than instruct or dictate. Direct that clergy must truly listen to their flock with an overall aim to mitigate power, arrogance and corruption.
8	1. we need leadership opportunities for parish invigoration, to go into parishes to assist with evangelisation, we need leadership opportunities for youth suggest eco justice is what youth are interested in, could be a youth eco council at a diocesan level 2. Resources for faith formation for all, the rosary was a focus, need better prayer apps for family prayer and podcasts for young adults and 3. Better connection opportunities with other communities including Indigenous and refugee the bookends of society.
6	God is calling the Church in Australia to be more INTERESTING TO its members and other Australians. It must be more obviously INTERESTED IN its individual members, their groups and the wider community. This can only occur at the local “micro” level (diocese, parish, small community/group) but it needs enthusiastic support, not mere toleration, from Church leaders at the “macro” level. There will be a clearer enabling of discernment, management, action and interaction at local levels. More, probably smaller, Catholic communities where people feel more at home will appear. An authentic “Australian-flavoured” Catholic Church using, whenever possible, language and symbols relevant to its 21st century members and their many cultures, will be born. A lay person, a woman initially, will be appointed as the day-to-day, public face and voice of the Church in Australia. We will leave each Sunday Eucharist commanded to enact in our lives each week what we have just celebrated with Christ.
7	Group 1 – A Joyful, Hope-filled and Servant Community (7) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We look for a church that is more a mystical, prayerful community, rather than an organisation that is concerned with money and power. - We seek joyful Eucharistic celebrations with more laity involvement, and more welcoming of newcomers. - There should be a variety of liturgies, both charismatic and more meditative. - Involve youth in service and they will find connections to the community. - More advocacy for refugees, homeless, prisoners, as well as concrete actions from our all church leaders, ie all Bishops, along the lines of Pope Francis visiting prisoners, visiting refugees and asylum seekers, the aged, homeless in shelters - We would like to see our (and all) Dioceses and Parishes organised by committed lay people who can support the clergy in their specific pastoral ministry roles.

7	Group 2 – A Joyful, Hope-filled and Servant Community (7) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Recognising that conversion starts with the individual, preaching and catechesis should take seriously the teaching that the kingdom is present in the here and now (cf. Vatican 2 on the secular character of the lay vocation: “the laity seek the kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs” – Lumen Gentium par.31). - Reverse the sequence which seems to be currently in force: behave, believe, belong – where church membership appears to be conditional on good behaviour and right belief – so that the local Church is known as an open and welcoming community where the experience of belonging leads to faith and Christian living. - And, more specifically following the example of Francis Bishop of Rome, that outreach to those on the margins be given greater priority so that these individuals and communities feel at home in our gatherings.
6	Redressing women’s longstanding systemic disadvantage and invisibility Church laws/ teaching must be gender inclusive Leadership promotes equality and treats women equal to men Clericalism shouldn’t impede contributions of women to Church mission Women provided with opportunities for genuine leadership in Church Governance and decision making Church Hierarchy shows genuine repentance and transparency for sexual abuse Australian bishops acknowledge apologise nationally for wrongs committed in Australia. Hold public liturgies or national Mass of repentance/ healing that acknowledges past mistakes across Australia. Bishops and Priests welcome all- women divorced gay thus demonstrating genuine Servant Leadership Schools strengthen the faith of students staff and parents through faith/ sacramental formation and provide opportunities for parents young adults and parishioners to gather/ socialize. Parishes provide opportunities for people to be involved in reflections on the Gospel.
8	National Action: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The church needs to get back to basics, to act in a way that people will trust in the church again. Only then will others return. 2. We all must accept the challenge to participate once again in the church & the liturgy. 3. Bishops must stand shoulder to shoulder with the Laity and walk with us. Local Action: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We must continue to meet & lead by our example in our community. EG: helping others, meals on wheels, providing religious services for those in aged care. 2. There was an obvious “joyfulness” within our congregation after our church held the 3rd rite of Reconciliation. This needs to continue to give parishioners the opportunity to receive the sacrament of Penance. Most people prefer this form of Reconciliation. 3. Encourage positive sermons, give hope that by living good lives & following the faith we will reach our God. 4. Take steps to enhance ecumenical connections & activities in our community.
5	Focus on Community. make the Church more accessible. Reach out to people make personal contact Address disconnect between Church and School communities A church that is less clerical less ritualistic Seen in the street / park / shopping malls make a survey of parish weaknesses needs goals
7	The church needs to make a concerted effort to be heavily involved in social media. The church needs to be more open in our relationships and interactions with other Christian churches, other religious groups and other community groups. The church needs to more actively promoted environmental issues.
10	If the Spirit of God is within us and our parishes, and if we allow the God in us to greet the God in the other, we will be joyful, hope-filled and servant communities. To achieve this we need to allow the space for Jesus to be in their lives. The primary need therefore is education in how, when, and where to pray, including contemplation and meditation on the scriptures, and the formation of prayer groups in parishes and Catholic organisations. Prayer must be at the centre of our Catholic life. In this way we become oriented to God’s mission and allow space for God to take over and generate the energy for our ministries. Small Christian Communities, from prayer and reflection groups to full service groups, can lead parishes to become servant communities. We need to commit to finding better ways to engage with all our stakeholders, both within and outside our parishes, to truly be missionary, to truly be servant communities.

10	God is calling us to heal the Church through creating Trust & Faith. However, this takes time. Corruption is rife in society – the Funeral industry, Aged care industry, Banks, care for Disabled, Parliament – it is part of a bigger problems regarding institutions in Australia- not just the Church. It's a problem In this world, not of the world. Therefore the way forward is to rebuild trust through Church Leadership focusing back onto Jesus and the Holy Spirit – remember J.O.Y: Jesus first, Others second, Yourself third. Furthermore, this trust can be increased by the Church being Honest and being Humble. Face the problems & issues – acknowledge, forgive and repair. Create the Catholic identity – Christ is present in the Mass through the Eucharist, focus on the role of Mary, role of Peter – Pope- Holy Spirit – keeping people of God together. During the Arian Heresy it was the laity who saved the Church – not Bishops... and the same can apply today.
10	God is calling the Church to be more serving and less corporate – for example Vinnies now focusing on profitability, resulting in too much focus on fund raising, high prices in stores, and a decline of helping those in real need through home visits. Church needs to be more Christ-centred, serving our community. Another example is of the Catholic schools becoming more corporate due to pressures from Curriculum, govt. expectations, teacher burnout, and reductions in spiritual literacy of teachers. More focus required on Christian values, not Corporate values.
10	God is calling us to Focus on the membership of the church – Remind the Australian community of the healing power of the Eucharist – turn to the Church in times of need instead of turning to addictions such as alcohol, gambling, medications – and the Catholic Church should use advertising and media to remind the community with this message.
51	Rebuilding the reputation of the church by being proactive and energetic in the community with a community first focus instead of self-interest.
4	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. We feel that we are a servant community, without necessarily being involved with the formalities of the Catholic Church. viz our participants are involved with local agencies such as Vinnies Conference, Community Kitchen (is Catholic Care) & other community welfare or education organisations. 2. Hope-filled: we hope that our priests reflect the hopes & aspirations of Vatican II (two). 3. we hope that laity will be more involved; both male & female laity. 4. Q: What is "the Church" today ? 5. Rigidity of Mass is not joyful. (its respectful, contemplative, prayerful). Liturgies, where there is community involvement, are joyful.
45	Small groups and communities that meet locally for adult formation, faith development and prayer, e.g. Catholic Alpha. Greater engagement of young people at parish level, through youth groups and prayer activities. True leadership and inclusion of the laity in all roles in the Church. Greater transparency through information sharing and laity engagement across all levels of Church.
6	Ministry is not an organ for formation in clericalism (more than 1 form of ministry) A screening process in seminaries which is honest and as objective as possible and aimed at prevention of abuse in all its forms
6	The Church's role is to proclaim and live the gospel of Jesus Christ - therefore all members should be taught the Gospel, to read and be helped to read the scriptures and children engaged in the planning of the scriptures for their education. The Church is to be inclusive in the service of Church such that Church gives women a fairer share of the work such as female leaders in parish
6	Youth focused More celebrations, TV and social media presence bringing music, prayer and meditation to the youth More collaboration between states/dioceses so all are on the same page/same understanding Women deacons and women acolytes
6	Catholic schools to be more active in promoting the Mass and Catechism classes within the Catholic schools Young people to express their life experiences in meeting God by living the message of Pentecost Restore 3rd Rite of Reconciliation to parishes
30	We gathered a group of sisters who identified the following as ways we could contribute to this area A joyful, hope-filled and servant Community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide and resource the opportunity for people to gather and share their gifts and concerns and to build connections. • To support this group toward action and advocacy in the areas that is of most concern to them. • Put our resources; influence to support the Spirit at work in others.

7	Change Nature of Plenary Council - (i) 3rd of people need to be lay people - ask Bishops to decide to include more lay people; and (2) invite members of Bishops' Conference/Plenary Council to visit local Community Groups and listen to their needs. Encourage an Open and Inclusive Church - change/modify Church Law to include women, the LGBTQI communities and those divorced and remarried. Promote Servant Leadership for a Humble Church - (i) education of Church Hierarchy by lay people re the vital works of the likes of St Vinnies, etc; and (2) Change in Church Governance e.g. Parish Council for all parishes and Diocesan Councils for all Dioceses.
7	Change the Composition of the Priesthood - (i) women priests and married priests - more attuned to needs of families; (ii) parents are more attuned to development of families; and (iii) more joyful communities would result. Renew our Focus on the Poor and Marginalised - (i) Plenary Council/Bishops' Conference make a statement of support for those organisations within the Church that give support to the the poor and marginalised in our community e.g. Vinnies, Caritas;and (ii) more encouragement for Catholics to become more involved in Social Justice. Make the Liturgy More Relevant - suggest that the Australian Catholic Church employ a group of people gifted in the English language to re-write the three (3) Penitential Prayers and Peoples' responses so that they are expressed in everyday language. Protect and Restore the Earth - Australian Catholic Church establish an Education for Change Group.
30	That the Australian Catholic Church makes decisions and carries out its ministry mindful of the standards of the Gospel, asking What Would Jesus Do? That the Australian Church embrace a lively spirituality around the rich vision of Vatican II still to be realised, and especially as expressed through "Laudato Si". That the Australian Church, through its parishes and agencies, institute protocols enabling the exercise of climate justice. That the Australian Catholic Church focus on the cries of the poor and foster a spirituality of justice, peace and care of creation. That small house churches be encouraged and allowed to flourish.
10	Joyful: show more joy! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Joyful liturgies • Inclusive & joyful music • Declare a 'Year of Joy' • WYD: shows universality of Church • Witness joy in the community through our actions eg smiling • Bring joy to others by service • People, including children & youth, involved in preparing and taking role in Mass and music Hope-filled: Resources and education to grow our faith, which is the source of our hope <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Retreat days for laity • Booklets, daily reflections, apps/online resources, bible studies to support a range of prayer types Servant – being the hands and feet of Jesus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Church to be outspoken on social justice ('voice for the voiceless') & environment issues (as Laudato Si) • Practice environmental responsibility as an organisation • Mental health & nursing home outreach • Support groups and practical help for young families • Revive 'social + spiritual' youth groups • Consistent application of support (eg national Vinnies guidelines)
6	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Change the formation of Priests so that JOY is an aim and is developed.. 2 That victims of abuse be acknowledged more readily and the details of the redress scheme be more publicly advertised and made more rapidly accessible. 3 That the situation of confession and forgiveness of abuse be clarified to indicate that forgiveness can't be given unless recompense is guaranteed. 4 At Pentecost there be during the Mass a public renewal by all the faithful of commitment, including a commitment to service. This needs to be planned and advertised the week before to be meaningful.. 5 Create a national profile of "Servant Community" which can be used by Parish Councils to assess their parish and make whatever changes are necessary. 6 That there be a more concerted effort to create communities in Parishes so that people can enjoy each others' company, know each other and be more aware of others' needs. 7 Some inter-Parish activities or meetings could stimulate community building.

12	We pray that the Church will implement programs and safe-guards to ensure Catholic Schools engage faith filled, practicing teachers who may be living examples to students of the Catholic faith, values and way of life. We pray that the Church will implement educational & cultural programs to better prepare & train clergy coming to Australia to communicate & assimilate more effectively & efficiently in their Parish communities. We pray that the Church will implement action plans & programs for all Diocese's to access to better engage with and involve more deeply the youth of Australia.
6	Provide funds and infrastructure for retreat centres for spiritual formation and prayer to nurture faith development and spiritual growth in parishes
6	Get involved - become vocal about reconciliation - be aware of environment internationally and nationally Messages from the pulpit with good news about what is happening and how we can all participate Serious consideration of amazonian recommendations to ordain viri probati Clericalism needs to be expelled - parish council needs to be the decision maker not the priest
7	A joyful, hope-filled and Servant Community We exhorted by Jesus not to worry about our tomorrow what we will eat and where we live and what we will wear, not worrying is not the same as not taking sensible precautions and planning for our future and the future of others. Pope Francis exhorts us to care for our environment, to cease pollution of water, air and biosphere; To work for an even distribution of the gifts of creation; To share with the less fortunate and to look after the poor and disadvantaged in our midst. We need to find ways as Catholics to live our faith and share this with others. We recommend that our diocese and the Plenary Council actively pursue social justice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work publically to get asylum seekers off Manus and Naru • Support the Aboriginal Nations' Uluru statement • Develop long and short term affordable housing for homeless people
50	Most strongly supported. Encourage all to visit the sick Very strongly supported Defend right-to-life issues Youth encouraged by older people to take a lead. Pay for good musicians at Mass. Care for the environment. Defend human/legal rights of refugees, asylum seekers Strongly supported Greater trust, faith in God Care for neighbour a priority Mass to be joyful, appealing to youth and children Outreach to wider community Hold remembrance services of healing for those who have lost babies (miscarriage, abortion) Some support Give witness to society of care for others Use finances to show service of those in need Put Gospel values into action Give blessings to those who serve us. Encourage availability of Spiritual Exercises for the mentally ill Advertise TV Masses for the sick. Promote outreach to prisoners and their families. Emphasise acceptance rather than sin.
6	The call to be a servant community is the ideal for all Christians so that others are encouraged by our acceptance, care, prayerfulness and above all, our ideal to live the best we can. In accepting this call our community can only be enriched and enlivened which then presents a challenge for the younger members to live this call. Pope Francis models for us how to live the Christian life. Prayerfulness and action go hand in hand. Our community is a servant community that reaches out to those in need e.g. Vinnies Van. Our call to service follows our celebration of the Eucharist where we gather as a community. We have the obligation to be aware of happenings around us and should respond as Jesus would. We need to recognise our neighbour in everyone, not just those we are comfortable serving.

5	1. Enliven our celebrations (other than Mass) by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Promoting simple language Encouraging joyful praise More inclusion of community members in active roles Allowing for spontaneity 2. Require all bishops to spend one day each month in a frontline (“coal face”) community service role. 3. Consider ways to meet young families where they are, to develop fun-filled faith communities outside of the weekend Mass paradigm. Promote evangelisation through relationship. 4. Develop liturgy/prayers which use everyday language and simple ritual that is understandable and engaging for people. 5. For the celebration of Eucharist with school aged children, consult with/use the expertise and knowledge of teachers to develop an appropriate homily and encourage children’s involvement.
15	Catholics for Renewal Inc prioritises the following actions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Ensure modelling of the ideal “See how these Christians love one another” – in parish communities, ecumenically and interreligiously Be a church primarily engaged in the coming Reign of God Assist the church to rediscover and live the Gospel call to be grounded in hope, joy and the gifts of the Spirit Tangibly, across the church, embrace the spirit and teaching of Pope Francis ”No’ to all forms of clericalism” (Pope Francis) Embody a seismic institutional shift that will give heart to people: hierarchical accountability, transparency, inclusivity and the long-overdue valuing of the ministry of women and the LGBTIQ community We refer you to extensive details in support, and further major actions, in our submission/book Getting Back on Mission: Reforming Our Church Together - copies have been provided to all Australian bishops and the Facilitation team.
5	Acknowledgement of different forms of praying, allowing all christians to feel part of the community. Implement a consistent, inclusive Sacramental program process across the Diocese. Discussion on acknowledging society no longer works 9-5 and christians attend mass on various days and times throughout the week, not everyone can be part of the weekend obligation. Change of language in the Eucharist/Mass to be revisited within an Australian context. Less formal and including an acknowledgement of the traditional custodians of the land. Reintroduce the Third Rite of reconciliation. Further develop outreach programs within schools and Parishes.
20	Mass books for children. Making mass child-friendly through music - using high-energy hymns. Model of servant leadership - priestly servant ministry - professional learning. Focus from a parish perspective of inclusion - Harmony Day, World Day of disability. Bring joy to Church - welcoming initiatives in each parish. Mini-Vinnies initiatives. Inclusion of all people - multicultural, indigenous - have a person responsible in each parish for this. Teachers that demonstrate their own personal faith - eg. seeing them at Mass. Teaching children about the honour and privilege of going to Mass. School-based Sacramental Programs - make them part of the curriculum. Having priests that relate to their community - make more people wanting to come to Mass. More community outreach opportunities. Invite community to parish events. Videos instead of readings to help children connect with scripture. Praying the Rosary as a school. Choir at Mass on Fridays - connecting school to the parish.

4	Church shouldn't just be about Sunday Mass. We need to encourage and make faith active (literally) within the church more visible (via outreach and community groups) so all parishioner get involved. Participation the key word! Give more focus on serving the church and local community as Jesus commanded us. We want to make parishioners feel a part of a living church (not just a 4 walled building). The church is us! Have more community events - open to anyone and everyone locally. Make the Church not just an exclusive believers group only. Show our community that the Catholic Church are more than recent tragic sexual abuse scandals. We're a loving, caring and faithful family serving a loving and rock solid God. Mass doesn't allow for real group interaction. To encourage more group dialogue during Peace Greeting time - allow it to be longer so people can talk and commune with other parishioners. Not just a hand shake but say 2-3 mins actually properly greeting others.
5	Small Groups <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. For the Bishops and parish priests to support and help strengthen the existence of small groups in their parishes. 2. For RCIA members to be linked to sponsors in their Church community 3. That Lenten and Advent home groups be announced and encouraged to form with stimulating, low cost programmes. 4. That Passionist Family Groups be annually promoted for new Families and new groups to be formed in the parish with renewal days, presentations and communication to the parishes. Leadership by the laity <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. That Laity positions of leadership be granted authority to carry out their roles. Lay leaders can reach out by invitation to new or disengaged members to take a role in practicing their faith. 6. That the Laity Leadership roles be accompanied by National Manuals for individuals in a leadership role to access. These manuals will guide the laity while they take up leadership in their parish
5	What actions do we feel strongly towards? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Our group felt strongly about having opportunities to reflect, speak and listen in small groups where we reveal our vulnerability about our faith. This would help us grow in hope that the Catholic Church can show that it brings kindness and care to others. • Our group felt the leadership roles that the laity held in the parishes should be afforded with faith formation, invitation and authority. What is the most loving response that the Holy Spirit is calling us to? To build hope for a faith –filled Catholic Community who celebrate together and care for their families and their Church family and then the wider community.

354	Catholic schools are not producing Catholics. The Catholic school system we have today was created for a different age and the system has been inherited rather than designed for the Church today. Instead, it has transformed into welfare for middle/upper-class parents who want the benefits of private education at half the price and are willing to tolerate occasional references to God. Our school curriculum no longer makes teaching and living the Catholic faith a priority. Very few teachers, parents or students are practicing Catholics. The Church should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Acknowledge that the Catholic education system is broken. It is not producing strong Catholics; it is inoculating children against the great truth of Catholicism; • Acknowledge that this exposure to a poorly taught curriculum that is rife with errors sees children abandon their faith at a young age; • Restructure the Catholic education system so that its purpose, first and foremost, is teaching the faith clearly, strongly and joyfully
8	Women have the right to be deacons For priests to have the right to choose to be married Women to have the right to be priests The right to have Laity involved in leading liturgies Structure of Mass more inclusive Youth involvement/network Engage young men in discussions that are relevant
3	Making a conscious effort, on a daily basis to bring joy and hope to the community through our actions, such as taking the time to talk to someone in need, offering help or support to others, volunteering time etc. In schools, guide students to volunteer in the community, and spread joy and hope to the ostracized, sick, aged, lonely etc
25	Candidates for priesthood - time for women to join and the opportunity to marry Right to life issues - teenagers need to see fairness, brave issues Joyful - relatable fun is important, it is foreign for our children to see priest involvement in their lives. Why? Servant Community - for families, school and individuals Practise what you preach from the top down leaders - Church > Leadership > school community > teachers > families At times teachers feel there is no support for their role with workload, support, structures, autonomy and respect.
3	- Altering the lens in which we analyse and interpret scripture to ensure it is providing opportunities for hope and joy in future planning and development.
11	National: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Church to be more present in media ie State and National newspapers, multi- media, websites with links; PROCLAIMING THE GOOD WORK. 2. Education – How is what we do important to the Catholic Church? ie Snippets of explanations on the elements of mass communicated during mass; understanding the symbols during mass; use lay terms. Increase faith education to the adults. 3. National collection for services – ie police, fire, ambulance; disaster relief. “Being a witness to society” Local: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 6	Our group came up with three action proposals: 1) The Church should undertake a national effort to promote and renew an ethic of volunteering by parishioners in Catholic parishes. Commentary: Catholics used to see volunteering as a requisite of life in the parish community; now both parents in many families work and are time poor; but they miss out on the joy of giving and helping others; In our own parish, we might undertake a program to encourage volunteering, by passing around clipboards at Sunday mass asking people to 'tick a box' for the things that they are interested in or would like to help in. This could range from helping with reading, or money counting, to welcoming, helping with JoCare, the Refugee Group, St Vincent de Paul etc. 2) Nationally the Catholic Church might promote as specific date each year for an Annual Community Day celebration in parishes around Australia that is open to everyone in the local community. Commentary: This could be seen as a way of opening course
20	Action Summary. We need to acknowledge the positive call to service that is already being demonstrated by the Catholic schools and the wider community. Using the Christ lens to show an awareness of the need to serve the community, by offering those who are disadvantaged support and hope. To break the cycle of despair and offer real strategies of support that will set up a lifetime of hope filled lives, not just day to day survival. People sharing their personal experiences- continue to inspire others to see the positives in life.
15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Contemporary and joyful homilies ● Call to action - parishioners and young people with a social conscience - truly ministerial (seeing the needs and faults) ● Reconsider how we reach out to the marginalised of our community - gay and lesbian, divorced, ● Open Catholic spaces to promote community through social activity ● Allow for more joy filled music/ songs that children can become involved in ● Be open to change, proactive ● Act with a sense of the current mood. ● More relevance for young people ● Remove discriminatory teachings ● Be patient and kind and accept the gifts others have to offer for the good of the community
15	Outreach: 'People have left the Church, so the Church needs to leave the building' <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Meet people where they are, physically, mentally, emotionally & spiritually. o Reach outside the physical & organisational structure of the Church Eg high school students see school as parish, marginalised (outreach to community), elderly (outreach to nursing homes) o For example, engage young people in their concern for environment, with bold leadership linking science & scriptural basis for stewardship. Laudato Si a good start; needs more overt action Show that we are joyful and hope-filled <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Attractive to others o Faith education & prayer resources to connect to the source of our joy o Joyful liturgies & hymns Get our house in order: 'remove the log from our own eyes' (Matt 7) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Be joyful, practice gratitude o Practice sustainability, ensure resources are used ethically o Measure changes to ensure well implemented, meet objectives and do no harm o Be kind and inclusive
22	That, at diocesan and local parish levels, the development of community is seriously undertaken. The Church must be open and inclusive and be a place where all people are welcome with a renewed focus on the poor, marginalised, asylum seekers, the vulnerable and disadvantaged. This will mean that laity, priests and bishops have co-decision making and co-responsibility. Canon law needs to change to allow this co-responsibility. Laity, priests, seminarians and bishops need to undertake education in community building skills, leadership, public relations and psychological development.

38	National approach to establish a small community network in parishes targeting families with young children with resources for faith formation & conversion experiences. National media office generating positive good works stories for the secular media and social networks. Create resources for students to prepare regular liturgies around themes relevant to their life/local circumstances rather than class masses. National research into why men do not want to become a priest and development of a national response strategy. Speak up forcefully for asylum seekers regardless of the secular political cost. Restructure formation of seminarians on the role of the priest in parish, creating dynamic uplifting liturgies, family life issues. As part of seminary training, seminarians spend time living with various families for short periods. Better Inservice for overseas priests that has extensive introduction to Australian culture and the role & relationships of the priest in the parish.
8	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. All catholic primary schools should provide an annual 'retreat' experience for each year level - appropriate to students' age and stage of development - which provides an opportunity to encounter the joy of Christ and to build an intimate relationship with Him. It is hoped this would become an experience that is eagerly anticipated as students progress through their Primary years. 2. Each year group is allocated a Christian value focus for the school year and carries out a community action/s to express this and to establish and experience a servant community. 3. In recognition of the vital role of the school in providing students and their families an experience of Church and leading them to engage with the broader church, each Primary school should have a dedicated pastoral worker from the associated Parish to provide the link between Parish and school - offering pastoral support and a point of contact eg. linking willing parishioners to families without grandparents.
12	Our emerging actions involve greater community connections between parish Church and parish primary schools. This could include: Witness to faith – community: schools and church to be an extension of families. Integrate school with the parish. Build enthusiasm with school staff and promote family groups eg sacramental programs School enrolment packs to include an introduction to the Church Demystify Church as a place- orientation day visit. Altar service party to include families of altar servers. Catholic Primary school to present Winter Appeal/Christmas Appeal during Mass, and conduct school liturgies for current events in the community eg nativity, Mother's Day liturgy Spread the two morning teas for schools to different weekends. Promote Green Team – Stewards of creation. A servant community. Share ideas between different Parishes around Australia - what programs & activities do other parishes do, collect bulletins from other parishes.
10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Distribution of the accumulation of wealth to support the vulnerable. • Mystical thinking – Good works – more organisation – Catholic care • Redistribute the extreme wealth of the church to help the needy. • Female – priests or equivalent • Allow priests to marry so they can be a part of the joyful/hopeful community, not apart from it • Be more welcoming • Female leaders, the church to overcome lack of trust currently prudent. • Duty to the poor and in need – social justice. • Create opportunity for children and the aged to interact and learn from each other under supervision. • Inclusive – welcoming to all (e.g. LGBTQ, refugee, indigenous) • Leadership roles for females. • Transparency – Financial – Abuse • Buildings could be used for temporary accommodation for displaced people. • Redistribution of unused potential wealth (in land and buildings) to the vulnerable or at risk. • Banish cynicism of past poor experiences with sincere actions to progress.
20	Promote and establish initiatives that express a Church that is a servant community especially to marginal persons by promoting eg SVDP, basic Christian communities. As an organisation the Catholic Church in Australia need to promote and champion the rights and needs of the mentally or physically ill in the wider community and use its power to bring about improvement in the care provided by the general community.

31	We do it well on special days like Remembrance Day and Anzac Day where we gathered the community; we should invite all the people in the surrounding community to come join us. Liturgy committee and a renewal program would help” We used to have sharing is during Advent and Lent they help to build community. Ask our other Christian Church’s locally to pray for us for the 2020 Council. Priests from foreign lands need help with the English language. More dialogue with other Christian Churches-knowing more about each other reduces prejudice The Church needs to be relevant and real and to communicate mental wellness. Advocate for change in the Church to make it relevant to today’s society: E.G. allow married priests and female priests Communicate and make real and relevant to the youth of the day Christ message National level the Church needs to have outreach to young adults of today in medium they understand. Real reparation and acknowledgement of guilt is needed for CSA by clergy
7	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Deal with anxiety and worry in our communities: People are becoming worried about many things. Homilies should stress that if we strive for the kingdom of God: all things will be given to us. Other resources e.g. meditation sessions and literature can reinforce this. Encourage people to trust in God’s providence; that if something is truly needed God will provide it. We shouldn’t let ourselves be consumed with worry. 2. Reach out more to those in need: We collect goods for charity (‘giving trees’, hampers etc.) around Christmas. Perhaps this outreach can be extended through special collections of goods for needy local groups. 3. Encourage gratitude for God’s gifts through the maintenance of ‘Gratitude Diary’, where at the close of each day one notes three things that you were grateful for that day.
5	We need to develop a sense of individual responsibility among all Catholics. We are all ‘priest, prophet and king’. Bishops and priests should increase lay participation in all aspects of church life. E.g. Train lay leaders to run parishes, leaving the priests to focus on providing the Sacraments and authoritative Catholic teaching. Laity and the church hierarchy should see themselves as equally responsible in the day by day challenges in living and reaching out to others as Christians in a world that is rapidly becoming more secular and free thinking. Bishops, priests and laity need training to be willing to step out of their comfort zones in order to take up this responsibility. We must all develop the humility of good servants towards each other and the wider community. All this can be fostered by education, better homilies, clergy finding time to sit as equals with people in serious discussion.
10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Church leaders need to be more authentic representations of the community so they aren’t detached from the people. For example; increased involvement with the community or the opportunity for priests to marry. • Look at the media representation of the church to increase the positive profile of the institution. There are great things going on however we only hear about the negative. • Need to reengage the youth and increase their connectiveness with the church. This could be done by making the language and activities inclusive. Also, views need to be modernised so as the youth’s views aren’t in conflict with the churches.
4	This morning we have focussed on the theme of "A Joyful, Hope-Filled and Servant Community". As a group we reflected upon the concept of being grateful for today and not worrying about the future or 'tomorrow's worries'. We reflected upon being content with God's love and not always striving for material possessions. Our overarching outcome/theme was to focus on the experience over education in Catholic Education of the experiences and lives of those less fortunate than us. For example providing staff and students with immersive opportunities and experiences within our local and broader community e.g. soup kitchen volunteering, seeing the outcome of food drives.
11	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - a renewal of outreach and readiness to participate in the public life of Australia - renewing the sense of awe at the Spirit at work in the early Church, and how we can be empowered by that - lifting the profile of the Church through marketing campaigns - offering the power of community singing to the wider community - recognising how the Holy Spirit has filled our hearts for loving service - standing by refugees - Catholics who are involved in service should be ready to speak about their work, especially to the Catholic community

28	The Australian Bishops engage with other churches, religious and community groups to address justice issues, and to communicate through modern media a strong public position on the issues, irrespective of whether they are communal, political or religious in nature. Two sub-points: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The bishops should speak up strongly for those who have no voice. - The Bishops are seen as 'entitled' and their powers should be reviewed.
2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - offering training seminars, theology courses where lay people can learn more about the faith - spirituality evenings done at parish levels (using skills of priests and experts within dioceses) - not volunteers but through payment from parish budget
8	To become a joyful, hope-filled and servant community, the people of the Central Deanery recommend that we should allow Homilies/Ministry of the Word to be open to all the Faithful (All Baptised), after appropriate formation. This would enable the faithful to have a much fuller, conscious and active participation in liturgical celebrations. (SC14). This would assist in the aim of reducing clericalism by allowing the participation of the Christian people in their Liturgical celebrations, which is their right and duty by reason of their baptism. It is most important that we increase inclusiveness, of the broken and of those who feel they're not welcome and/or worthy. At all times though we must acknowledge Christ's presence in the Eucharist and support our Priests in their appropriate role Create a strong Catholic Identity- Christ is present in the Mass through the Eucharist; focus on the role of Mary, role of Peter; the Pope; the Holy Spirit all keeping the people together.
8	In all Homilies Priests should concentrate on Catholic values in action. In finishing Homilies there should be a CALL TO ACTION. We must reach out and go out into the deep by changing our worship experience into an intense, joyful experience. We must also take a different approach to teaching Kids. It is considered that, Faith Formation in Schools should be changed as right now, at High School level, for example, it is diluted Another example is of the Catholic schools becoming more corporate due to pressures from Curriculum, government expectations, teacher burnout, and reductions in the spiritual literacy of teachers. More focus required on Christian values, not Corporate values. It is also important in Sacramental programs that Parents should always be involved and it is recommended that ALPHA for adults/parents be provided prior to Sacramental programs God is calling us to focus on the membership of the Church-remind the Australian community of the healing power of the Eucharist-tu
9	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be of genuine service and support to the most vulnerable in our community through appropriate agencies as exemplified by our St Vincent de Paul Conference and all the social justice and outreach agencies. • Support, and participate in the planning of the Parish Inter-generational Outreach projects for 2020. • Continue in the education of social, economic, political and justice issues with the aim to live up to the Parish's own commitment to being a Dementia Aware and Friendly Parish. • Provide, encourage and motivate greater involvement in pastoral visitation to the ill and home-bound. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Audit and review all Parish policies and programmes vis-à-vis the findings of the Royal Commission into aging. • Ongoing development and education of servant leadership in all organizational structures and governance. • Establish and build links with local agencies and other bodies to help meet the needs of the community. • A greater involvement in ecumenical and inter-religious dialogue.

9	1 Trust local Church to apply principles that suit the local situation and urge Priests to use options available. 2 Bring back sodalities of Holy Name, Sacred Heart etc 3 Create an atmosphere of fellowship by adjusting the introduction to the breaking of the bread with community-building rituals. 4 Create forums for Bishops, Priests and Laity to listen to each other. 5 Provide better support for bishops, Priests and laity. 6 Adjust the Liturgy of the Word to be interactive. The laity also have the Spirit and can share their wisdom with each other. 7 Emphasize JOY in seminary training. 8 International Dinners help to create community in Parishes as do name tags at cuppas after Mass. 9 A lottery for partnering so that people will tcontact a different person each month. 10 Organize schemes to welcome to the Parish, the Eucharist and to know who is in need, including youth 11Encourage home groups, eg Bible, to facilitate sharing 12 Provide helpful literature at the back of Church. 13 Smile
10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • get back to the Gospels • ordain women • women as deacons • women in greater leadership roles • optional celibacy • laypeople to take on more active roles • our current leaders to listen and to be open to change.
8	Engage young people through church-based national social media programs. Promote youth groups.
20	The key focus of the local church is the Eucharist celebration. Whilst this is of great importance to Catholics, a consequence is that the local church has become inward looking. For the church as we know it to become a part of the broader Christian community it requires leadership and commitment from the Bishops of Australia to change the culture where action becomes as important as devotion. Parishes need to develop a sense of encouragement so that the laity feel empowered to participate in parish group activities and to look to ways that they can involve other Christian communities. The group felt a need for groups such as Bible Study Groups and the promotion of courses for women within the Diocese. Stronger links to the St. Vincent de Paul charity at local parish level. Encourage parish-led charitable events at the local community
2	Slavery is a grave breach of human rights yet 40.3 million people are estimated to be enslaved today. The high number of impoverished and displaced people on the Earth provides a large pool for trafficking making human life cheap. It costs less to replace enslaved people on a regular basis rather than to sustain them in a manner that keeps them healthy. The Sydney Archdiocese seeks to combat slavery through education and by identifying products and services that are produced by properly employed people, but it remains optional for Catholic parishes/communities throughout Australia to choose slave free purchasing. The catechism of the Catholic Church condemns slavery (para 2414) and there is strong biblical support for the Australian Catholic Church to buy slave free, including Jesus in Mt 25: "whatever you do to the least of my family you do to me."All Catholic parishes/communities need to commit to slave-free supply chains AND opt into the Federal Government anti-slavery legislation.
10	Procedures & practises are required in the institutional church that equip encourage and support individuals in parish communities to spread attributes of joy & hope to friends & neighbours in their workplace, sporting & leisure groups. Measures such as Offer diocesan resources (written and in person) to parishes to enable them build and sustain small groups with the aim to increase the level of faith understanding and formation confidently discuss the joy & hope we derive from our faith when opportunity arises in conversation with others build wider friendship circles within the parish Improved current communication and public relations to the general public eg more good news stories in the general press of achievements of Catholics consider placing the diocesan Magazine for sale in News Agents and Supermarkets pictures and stories of young people going to international gatherings put out to local press. Making the Mass and other church liturgies more accessible and meaningful parti

13	We feel that people have now become so distant from the Church they feel uncomfortable and alienated. People feel uneasy and even scared to enter Church buildings which is a barrier to their further engagement with the teachings of Jesus. We suggest that we develop programs in local parishes that are of direct relevance and compelling interest to the wider community. These programs can be on a range of topics, not necessarily religious topics. Special thought could be given to things that may be of interest to younger people (e.g. tutoring and study programs). The idea is to attract people into the church buildings so that they become familiar with the Catholic premises: the look and the feel, the culture. Once they are comfortable and no longer see it as a foreign place then they are more likely to venture back into the Catholic spaces to see what else the Church may be offering.
13	Redefine our faith enrichment type activities to broaden what these may mean so that it can target a wider range of interests of the parish community. Art classes, yoga meditation; these types of activities may also be added to faith enrichment and therefore may start addressing some of the broader needs and interests of the parishioners.
13	Train and inspire our teachers (and indeed all Catholics) to be living examples to students and to be able to explain the fundamentals of their faith in ways that are logical and believable. Provide them with straightforward language that avoids standard Catholic terms that have become foreign and meaningless, or even trite to many young people in modern Australia. We need new phrases, new explanations, new justifications, new arguments. Even the term 'youth' (as in youth group) is laden with connotations that disenfranchises many young Australian right from the start. Can the church help us articulate difficult concepts using straightforward modern language without jargon, calling on examples from contemporary Australia. This is an extremely difficult task because those of us on the inside are so steeped in the language and culture it's impossible for us to know how alienating our language can be to those on the outside.
5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *That the Church does not put up barriers for people who are divorced and want to participate in the Mass. 3	As an RCIA coordinator I have been blessed to witness the true joy experienced by individuals and the parish community when people are baptised or enter into full communion with the Catholic Church. I believe the source of this joy and hope is a result of having an RCIA program that is faithful to the teachings of the Church, the Sacraments and to Sacred Scripture. I've heard of RCIA programs at other parishes that are not faithful to the teachings of the Church. But to love Christ you have to love His Church. After hearing one RCIA sponsor's story I could see that diluting the Faith by disregarding "difficult" truths actually leads to ignorance of how to live joy and hope amidst life's sufferings. The self-giving of the RCIA team and those participating in the program through their dedication, time and effort has been a real example in the parish community of Christ's own faithfulness to His Church which He lived and died for and sustains throughout history.
11	Participants felt that God asks us to trust and have faith in Him and to mature as per his divine plan and He will attend to all our needs. To inherit eternal life Jesus asks us to keep the commandments. Jesus alerts us that just as in His time on earth, He is not accepted. God allows the Holy Spirit within us to use our Godly gifts and talents. Unless we are truly willing and open we will not see what God is revealing to us. The concrete Actions at Parish level were: Have children's mass on Sundays, have activity once a month, monthly discussion groups of issues we become aware of, Invite families to write their petitions and place in a basket at front of the altar, follow-up visits to families whose children have received Holy Communion or been baptised, have Open Day – Qs & As for people At Diocese level: Mass for volunteers once a month, have week-end Retreats, remind Catholics who they are via Youtube videos, podcasts, radio snippets, T.V.

30	A Christ-centred Church which is joyful, hope-filled and serving has its greatest model in Mary. Her answer: "I am the handmaid of the Lord" should be our answer. She is centred on Christ and by doing the Father's will as he did and encouraging others to "do whatever he tells you" we will find true joy in our lives and a way to witness to and serve others. In a Church which is plagued by challenges on all fields, faith in God's providence as Mary had will give us hope and strength to reach out to offer wholehearted service to our Church and community. When we invite Mary into our lives as our educator and guide, we will be led to Christ and the heavenly Father – this is her God-given task. By striving to live the essence of a prayer, written in the Dachau Concentration Camp by the founder of Schoenstatt, we will become the Christ-centred Church needed today: Mary, let us walk like you through life Let us mirror you forever... Walk in us through our world Make it ready for the Lord.

10	Signs of how our Church might become more "joyful, hope-filled and servant" were discerned in our own and other parishes. Factors contributing to this vitality were perceived to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Encouragement by our priests for lay-leadership in all areas of parish life • The development of new lay-led areas of community service – e.g. care for the environment in the spirit of Laudato Sí, and participation in movements for justice for refugees. • The development of ties to Church communities in developing areas – e.g. the Philippines. Extrapolating from our experience, we urge the Council to consider <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New models of Church leadership, to include especially lay women, based on pastoral success stories from our parishes. • New priorities in Church mission, to include welcome to, and involvement for those presently alienated from or at the margins of Church life, including – victims of, or those disgusted by sexual abuse; Aboriginal Australians; dropouts among alumni of Catholic education.

Across the church, embrace the spirit and teaching of Pope Francis '''No' to all forms of clericalism'' (Pope Francis) Shift to a culture that will give heart to people: embody accountability, transparency, inclusivity and the long-overdue valuing of the ministry of women e.g., acolytes, deacons *God is calling church hierarchy to listen and discern with empathyreforming our Church together. *Welcome back married priests *Third Rite of Reconciliation is a sacrament of compassion that will reach out to many disengaged Catholics *Incorporate Australian Aboriginal spirituality in prayer – promote 'dadirri' contemplative way *Appoint qualified lay women and men to roles of senior governance
5	The need for contemplation and action. We felt that there was a greater need for Lectio Divina, bible study groups or interactive week day Masses where parishioners could witness to each other and share their stories, providing joy and hope to live Christian lives. These groups give people a space to ask questions, learn about their faith and strengthen their relationship with God. Supported by this prayerful contemplation we felt there was a need for improved communication between Catholic organisations and 'in the pew' Catholics as to the ways that parishioners can assist these organisations in timely, practical ways beyond a leaving collection. We considered that parishes have a variety of communication methods with parishioners and that people vary in their abilities to access some forms of communication, however we felt that people are very keen to be part of a servant church and share their talents and skills, but need to know how they can assist other than financial donations.
10	St Vincent's Parish, Portland, NSW, has discerned that, to follow Jesus in our time, the following actions are urgent: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) Promote a positive, outgoing, other-directed model of church; b) Promote the church as a genuine, listening church; c) Reach out to all the baptized; d) Reach out to the wider community; e) Embrace the spirit and teaching of Pope Francis.
15	Set an example. Do rather than say. Be positive in our faith and help one another. Encourage activities/ groups in parish where the presence of Jesus is seen through action - following in the footsteps of Jesus.
8	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The time for overruling decisions is past. We ask that the priest does not have sole authority for the life of the parish and that all groups are represented and responsible for implementing their shared discernment and decisions. 2. That the Church move out from her elitist role in the neighbourhood. We request that the church becomes immersed in day to day life fulfilling her servant community dream that is active participation in organisations, clubs and functions. 3. Unite with the local denominations to more effectively spread the Joy of the Gospel. Merge with other various established Church groups and function as one, sharing ideas, exploring shared Scripture beliefs and ecumenical possibilities Co-operate with local Churches and Councils to provide for the lonely, sick and needy at Christmas and in times of crises eg drought and bush fires, giving witness to loving non-judgemental outreach and building Community. 4. 956	The preamble to this discernment speaks of the sense of hopelessness and powerlessness that pervades our world. Yet hope does persist amongst the Faithfull. Pope Francis begins his exhortation to young people with: "Christ is alive! He is our hope, and in a wonderful way he brings youth to our world, and everything he touches becomes young, new, full of life. The very first words, then, that I would like to say to every young Christian are these: Christ is alive and he wants you to be alive!" (Christus Vivit ; 1, 2019). We recommend locally that <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Each parish has an active ministry to the poor, the sick and the elderly. 2. Each parish works with the recommended liturgy group to develop a truly hospitable, family atmosphere that welcomes 'the stranger' and celebrates the eucharist each Sunday with vibrant music and joy. 3. Families and groups are encouraged to assist and lead in the preparation of liturgies to reflect their traditions.
956	The preamble to this discernment speaks of the sense of hopelessness and powerlessness that pervades our world. We recommend nationally that <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Australian Bishops' Conference consider the pervasive low morale within the Australian Church and invite Pope Francis to visit and participate in the second-round consultations of the Council in 2021 in Sydney. This would enable the announcement and implementation of a substantial act of humble and meaningful contrition and reparation for victims of sexual abuse 2. A renewed and strengthened media office is created to coordinate and lead the network of parish groups pertaining to marriage and family, liturgy and the formation of the faithful. 3. The Australian Bishops' Conference create study groups of experts to consider ways of addressing the systemic issues of the secularization of our society and the deterioration of public, commercial and political ethics. Catechesis of our society is needed.
40	That the bishops be transparent and accountable for vocation promotion. Better screening of candidates for the seminary and and monitoring of seminarians. improved resources for vocational discernment
5	Clergy should be required to attend competency based management training in the areas of financial management, communication, people management, homiletics, basic maintenance management, Australian culture, records management, pastoral care etc. in order to reduce the stress of managing their parishes and being more available to minister to their flock. It should be compulsory, modular, requiring completion of 2-3 modules per semester, and should require them to pass competency test at the end, not just attendance. A record of each competency should be maintained by the Vicar for Clergy or Archbishop's office. English competency should be mandatory to start with. This should result in better managed parishes, and more available priests, less clericalism. This is management training on top of compulsory clergy retreats for spiritual growth. It should run alongside a mentoring program utilising retired and experienced priests as mentors.

5	In order for parishes to be more caring communities the running of parishes should be given to Permanent Deacon's as was the case in the early church freeing up the priests to serve their community spirituality. The parish would then be led by a team consisting of the priests and deacons. In order to achieve this more permanent diaconate programs need to be introduced. Prayers for vocations should always include the diaconate, not just priests and religious, and a deacon be assigned to each parish in the diocese. Deacons should receive appropriate remuneration for their role in the parish. The priests could then be assigned to several parishes if there is a shortage of priests, their role would be to focus on guiding the parish's spiritual direction and not be distracted by admin role. Diocesan priests should be able to marry with celibacy restricted to order priests.
20	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Promote activities that enable youth to gather with opportunities to be better informed, pray together and reach out to others. 2. Require Ministers of the Word and Ministers of Holy Communion to renew their commitment annually and engage in on-going formation. 3. Hold more frequent National Conferences which will promote better understanding of the use of music and other spiritual art forms in Liturgy and Worship. 4. Disseminate information about already existing Catholic and Interfaith Groups in the community through greater use and coordination of a variety of means of communication, taking into consideration in particular, youth, disadvantaged people, the sick and elderly. 5. Publicly endorse an Ecological Vision in accordance with Gospel values which will promote deep respect and care of our environment.
22	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ensuring that the highest-level decision-making body in our national and local Church include members of the laity (representing a broad diversity of cultural, gender, age marital status groups etc) and that these members of the laity be full voting and participatory members of that decision-making body not simply advisory members. 2. that we address the negative perception and loss of trust that our Church and our Faith has brought upon itself in the broader society by having a twice-yearly advertising program (eg at Easter and Christmas) which addresses two aims: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Genuine and heartfelt apologies are addressed to victims of clergy and religious sexual abuse and sets out how redress will occur for the harm that has been done. • Promotes the good that the Church and its agencies are doing in our society, particularly in caring for the poor and vulnerable
8	Page 1 of 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In order to allow for the necessary healing and positive transformation within the Church towards a J H-F S Community, there must firstly be a public acknowledgement of, and demonstrable remorse for, the dreadful blight of child sexual abuse & its cover up committed within the Church, and acceptance of the Royal Commission's recommendations . This is essential for the credibility of the church, in order to move ahead with any of the Plenary Themes. • Vatican II – especially Gaudium et Spes - should be again embraced as a touchstone for informing and guiding our faith communities on the way to becoming 'Joyful and Hope-Filled'. There is no need to 'reinvent the wheel'. The road map is there, although the road itself has been overgrown by disuse & lack of maintenance . • Focus for liturgical and parish/faith community activities should above all be Christ centred rather than stuck on unnecessarily outdated, formal ritualistic precepts. Attention to the warmth of welcoming others.
8	Page 2 of 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Priests have a central sacramental role which is to be honoured, respected and supported, but the Mass & community activities should be opened up to allow others (women and men) to fulfill any and all other roles, including the liturgy of the word, preaching, community outreach/pastoral care (see later), hospitality, counselling, administration etc etc according to their demonstrated gifts. As St Paul says, we are all members of the body of Christ and have a role to play as part of that body. • Opportunities should be provided for Catholic faith communities (with or without resident priests) to have access to training to perform and perfect these roles/gifts for the benefit of others within the community and beyond. This should include spiritually enriching opportunities of prayer and reflection and guided meditation. • Ecumenism should be enthusiastically pursued by Catholic communities beginning with joint celebrations of the major Christian festival s of Christmas

5	For our Australian Church What we preach and what we do and how we are seen The prayer text we prayed with was Luke 10:21-37, which includes the parable of the Good Samaritan. We recommend that our bishops engage with and make public comment on issues that Jesus would have been concerned with, such as the marginalization of and discrimination towards vulnerable people, for example homelessness, those living with fragile mental health and refugees. We see Pope Francis modelling for us the way of Jesus. We are tired of the negativity projected to the wider society by some bishops. In relation to the recent bushfires, for example, yes – we got a letter in parishes telling us about donations to Vinnies, but we want the public to see us and our representatives representing us on the ground, as compassionate and responsive people, witness
5	FOCUS ON LEADING FROM AND LIVING THE GOSPEL We believe that the hierarchy of the Church has moved away from God’s teachings. We ask the bishops to get back to basics. We want you to lead by example. What we experience is hypocrisy. We want to see meaningful changes for the benefit of the whole Church. This is also how our children will learn, when they see the Church leading by example. We want to see you leading with humility, being seen involved in the everyday issues of the world; getting your hands dirty if need be. Bishops should be more visible in society, on the ground and especially when disaster strikes, such as the bushfires (However, we wondered if for some reason authorities prevented the bishops from the bushfire scene). We want society to see the leaders of our Church being compassionate and connected with the concerns of the people, not as remote and irrelevant. We are meant to be fishers of people, but the fish rots from the head first. Clericalism is the cause of the r
5	CLERICALISM IS AN OBSTACLE TO THE GOSPEL We feel angry and upset that there is a boys’ club culture. This needs to be disbanded. Clericalism needs to be abandoned and stopped so that we might continue as a Christ-centred Church. The following are some examples of what we believe needs to be changed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Theatrical behavior and vestments and clerical garb do not convey a humble Church • Address the issue of power. When priests and bishops are career focused or when they use power abusively, then this is destructive for the Church • Increase the opportunity for the participation of women at all levels in the Church. We have been denied the spiritual leadership of women • Transparency is imperative and we should pledge to be transparent from now on • Listen to and respect the people of the Church, in this Plenary and going forward, perhaps by calling for our thoughts and feelings at other times. • Be careful of hypocrisy
5	THE NEEDS OF OUR WORLD We want the bishops to show and encourage us to see that we are part of the solution to many problems, such as climate change, domestic violence, showing no concern for our wildlife and domestic animals. We have this beautiful planet and we don’t treasure it. Materialism destroys it. We focus on the wrong thing in the Church so that the most vulnerable is hurt or destroyed. The Church should show leadership here. We have CSSV and agencies for social advocacy and care, but we want to see and hear the bishops act and speak on these matters. It is about the perception created when the bishops are absent. It’s not enough to delegate here. Generate more love for the vulnerable in our world by our actions and attitudes.
5	APOLOGY AND HEALING We would like to see and hear a heartfelt apology to the victims of abuse by priests and religious and a heartfelt apology to the people of the Church who have been betrayed by their leaders through this scandal. This would communicate the kind of humility that we would like to see and it may contribute to healing for victims and for our Church. The Pope has already apologized, but this has not been enough. The apology needs to be like the apology made to the First Peoples, by the Parliament of Australia in 2008. HOPE We want to feel united in hope. At the moment there is despair. We want to know that there is change on the horizon.

5	For the local Church Consider bringing in an Aboriginal elder on Sorry Day Try to ensure that we have practices and structures that continue to prevent clericalism. Continue to have meetings such as these once the Plenary has been completed. We could consider various topics and feedback to PPC Invite the bishops to come and listen to us and our concerns Try to find ways to support the fundraising efforts of classes and the school. Ask the prayer shawl group to get involved with initiatives and involve the school families PPC get involved to support and collaborate with our Social Justice Group, so justice is not just seen as the domain of the social justice group. Ensure that we have a focus on everyday issues of concern for people. Partner with a Church in a bushfire area to raise money for their needs. Find businesses in the bushfire areas and encourage parishioners to order from them i.e. put in a bulk order of, for example, non-perishable foods, jam, honey – something like that.
5	What we preach and what we do and how we are seen The prayer text we prayed with was Luke 10:21-37. We recommend that our bishops engage with and make public comment on issues that Jesus would have been concerned with, such as the marginalization of and discrimination towards vulnerable people, homelessness, those living with fragile mental health and refugees. Pope Francis models the way of Jesus. We are tired of the negativity projected to the wider society by some bishops. In relation to the recent bushfires, for example, yes – we got a letter in parishes telling us about donations to Vinnies, but we want the public to see us and our representatives - on the ground, as compassionate and responsive people, witnessing to Jesus. Its' not enough to say this or that organization is acting on our behalf and not present a more public compassionate and wise face. This would, more fundamentally, reflect the Gospel and how we are called to live, as Christians
5	Grounding our homilies in Scripture and life Homilies should make connections between the Gospels and our Christian life, for example addressing the marginalization of and discrimination of vulnerable people, as mentioned above.
5	Advocacy and compassion We should also be encouraged, in our parishes, to advocate on behalf of the marginalized – not just the social justice group, but for all of us to live an integrated Christian life. An example might be to challenge the bureaucracy of Centrelink, seeking more accessible processes which would provide a dignified treatment of applicants and recipients of benefits with respectful, consistent and timely processes. Months of delay, inconsistent collation of information and what seems inept handling by Centrelink, is disrespectful to people and causes financial harm, at times exacerbating mental health issues. Initiatives such as negotiating with Centrelink for the churches to provide a chaplaincy role at Centrelink offices would be a valuable contribution we could make, even as volunteers who are trained.
5	Formation for seminarians and priests Some priests do not connect their homilies with life. We are concerned that seminary training in homiletics is limited to an explanation of the text. And beyond homiletics, we believe that candidates for the priesthood should be screened more thoroughly and trained so that they more engaged with ordinary life. To this end, we recommend a greater openness to married priests.
5	Education Provide education in parishes about mental health issues, how to identify and how to assist or support people of all ages living with fragile mental health - and their families.
5	Women Women are amongst the marginalized in the Church. Opportunities should be made for a greater participation by women in leadership in the Church. Structures should be more open and inclusive. The engagement of women within our structures should not be tokenistic. The best people should be chosen, but women should be given equal opportunities to participate at all levels.
5	Special Sundays As well as having Sundays for chaplaincies and Priests' Retirement Fund and whatever else we have, we would like to see a focus on the marginalized. We could, for example, have a Sunday for the homeless, or a Sunday for people living with mental health issues.
5	Third Rite of Reconciliation The Third Rite of Reconciliation should be provided regularly in parishes. The diminished number of people participating in the First Rite should indicate how people do not wish to participate. The diminished number of priests can't cater well for Second Rites. Third Rite celebrations can be very moving and they highlight the communal nature of sin. They give hope and restore individuals and the community.

5	Liturgy and inclusiveness Our liturgies should be more inclusive. We would like to see women giving homilies, or reflections more regularly
5	Young people Apart from supporting young people with mental illness, we believe that our young people should be formed in such a way that they want to be engaged in the social mission of the Church, e.g. soup kitchens and Young Vinnies.
5	Catholic schools In relation to encouraging our young to be involved in social ministry, our primary schools should encourage parishioners to come and speak with grade 6 children and younger, about their ministries of outreach on behalf of the Church.
5	Regarding the Plenary Council When we the people speak out about matters, we should be heard and valued. Voices coming from all over Australia that offer consistent recommendations, are an indication of the Spirit being present, so that is what the bishops need to honour, otherwise you are an obstacle to the Spirit.
5	Encourage youth through music That the church expands their knowledge and update views by reading current literature Teach Children in the public schools Get children to write their 'best moments' and put them on the plate as a thankful offering to God. Use social Media and internet technology to be relevant in today's society Allow priests to marry.
11	Local Action (Parish) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Inclusion of new brothers in the activities of the community (eg Cenacles, retreats, patron celebrations and masses of Adoration to the Blessed Sacrament, so that they can be an active part of the community. 2. The Church is calling us to reflect and review at what stage I am in order to give myself to the brother. 3. Serve the weakest, rejoice with those who are happy and help those who suffer 4. The Holy Spirit is inviting us to detach ourselves from our ideas, very rigid traditions that do not allow us to understand the difference of others. 5. Each person is individual and unique to God, being the church in Christ we walk belonging to Christ, growing in him, loving, forgiving, and growing spiritually. 6. To be servants of a Church that serves helping the growth of people through accompaniment to help new members discover their gifts and talents.
11	National - <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Create a ministry at national and local level that focuses on transmitting faith to the Youth and children, even if it is a social space only, to foster an encounter with Christ through prayer, Holy Mass, and the Word of God. 2. Create spaces where young people in need can obtain spiritual guidance and support. 3. Prepare the Youth and train them so that they serve in the formation of other Youth and children in each Parish. 4. That these ministries and spaces be supported in each diocese and Parish.
5	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Formation of priests to include: acquiring people oriented skills; learning flexibility in shared leadership; adapting liturgy to suit different groups; conflict resolution skills. 2. Accountability for both clergy and laity in leadership with all being required to undergo regular compulsory appraisals as is the case for principals in the Catholic education system in WA. 3. Laity being given the opportunity to lead liturgy according to their skills and talents. Women deacons could be a first step for female laity in achieving this aim. 4. Inclusive language be used in the liturgy and in all scriptural translations.
6	The format for this meeting (reading, praying, reflecting in silence, listening to the Spirit) showed us the importance of prayer and setting aside time with God. There is comfort in knowing that WE don't have to fix it all; that if each small part of our Church can move forward, then the whole will be on its way to recovery. We see a need for more social activities, more involvement in the community as a Catholic presence and sharing a positive attitude toward refugees. It's important to recognise what we do have going at a parish level (Vinnies, mini-Vinnies, ecumenical gatherings, PPC, sense of a faith community, etc) – and even at a national level (Vinnies, Caritas, Social Justice, Environment etc). . .

5	The Catholic Church in Australia should consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • developing and promoting new and innovative structures to support the faith development of its members. This might involve the establishment of new groups focusing on the faith development of people, based on their gender, their age or their special interests. • the institution of a national Catholic Church ‘Discovery Day’ where people from all walks of life can come and get a sense of what the Catholic Church has to offer. • the institution of a national Catholic Church ‘Coming Home’ program for people who have left the Church and are looking for a way back.
5	The Catholic Church in Australia should consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • interdenominational initiatives that encourage greater cooperation among Christians and their churches. This might involve the celebration, between Christian churches, of non-Eucharistic services (Stations of the Cross for example). • Pope Francis’s exhortation that ‘the Church be a place of mercy and of hope in God, where everyone can feel welcomed, loved, forgiven and encouraged to live the good life of the Gospel’. Our churches need to be safe and inclusive communities where all people who are searching for meaning, regardless of their situation or their degree of faith commitment, are welcomed, loved and supported. • identifying and implementing best practise in teaching an appreciation of culture, fine arts and music in our Catholic schools • identifying and implementing ways to make Mass appealing for young people (including ensuring that the art work and music used in parishes are beautiful).
5	The Catholic Church in Australia should consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • using the weekly homilies to explain, relate and engage the readings to Church teachings, beliefs and activities on current worldly standards, influences, beliefs and laws. Also, ensuring that the material and method used to teach, train and qualify our Spiritual Leaders and Priests is truly steadfast in the Truth that Jesus came to give (and not a modern worldly based interpretation aimed at not offending, upholding or placating current worldly trends and standards). • establishing a national Catholic reading group where there is a monthly focus on coming together to read and discuss challenging (and beautiful) Christian literature.
5	As Catholics we are called to evangelise the culture (Romans 10: 13-15). In Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis outlined that this is carried out in three principal settings: 1) ordinary pastoral ministry (to inflame the hearts of the faithful); 2) outreach to ‘the baptised whose lives do not reflect the demands of Baptism’; and 3) evangelisation to those who do not know Jesus Christ or who have always rejected him. It has been said that the best strategy to evangelise the culture is one that moves from the beautiful, to the good and finally to the true. Hans Urs von Balthasar said that the beautiful claims the viewer, changes him, and then sends him on mission.
5	The challenge then, in the first instance, is to reveal/discover the beauty/joy of the Catholic faith and to work out ways to show others this beauty/joy. This involves a recognition of the wide variety of ways that Catholics are called to serve/carry out the mission of the Church of proclaiming and serving the Kingdom of God (1 Corinthians 12: 1-11). This service includes: liturgy and prayer, celebration of the sacraments, proclamation of the Gospel, pastoral care, care for the earth, working for justice, interreligious dialogue/ecumenism and care for the sick. What then are some of the practical ways to reveal the beauty/joy of the faith and to promote that beauty/joy through our service?
35	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Church hierarchy must develop National programs to support Outreach to marginalised groups, the poor, the lonely, victims of disasters, refugees, the bereaved, the sick and depressed and the Indigenous. 2. The Church hierarchy needs to come to the community to engage them enough to want to belong – this could be developed by truly trusting and involving equally women and men in debating, developing and voting on decisions made at the National level. 3. Our Australian Bishops can assuage the hurt and disempowerment expressed by many Catholic women by immediately giving them equality in decision-making processes with their Catholic male counterparts, as they deeply resent the “ecclesiastical glass ceiling” which holds them down. 4. The Church needs to make celibacy optional for priests, thus giving married priests a better understanding of the complexities of modern family life. 5. With Pope Francis’s recent call for the Church to be seen as a “Field Hospital.”

19	Students need to be engaged from the moment they enter the school environment about the community. All results/ thoughts work from there. In today's world young people see (particularly through media) that greed and a myopic attitude pervades and has an "upper hand" in world decision making. More than ever students need to be introduced to the human elements of empathy, proper decision making and individual thought to decipher what is right. Students do have a keen sense of understanding the meaning of God's community and justice for all. As teachers we must and continue to model behaviour and attitude to students the sense of faith towards community.
4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Sometimes as a catholic school community we can exclude our members by assuming everyone knows terminology and what we're talking about. - There needs to be more authentic walking the walk, not just talking the talk. - Authenticity in modern society could come from publicly owning past mistakes and seeing the bigger picture. - How would the Church go if they "owned" words like joyful and hope-filled and it was followed through. - Some of the walls and judgement need to be relaxed and people might be more willing to become involved: less of the "though shalt not".
5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Need to work on increasing connection between church and community. - Make scripture and meaning more accessible for people without a theological background so can find a greater meaning with it. - Reinforce and celebrate community values and successes within the church setting, so God is seen more at work in the community. - Outreach activities through the church which captures engagement of youth and provide further opportunity and pathways to contribute, support and serve.
5	We acknowledge that the Church already does so much for those in need in our community, whether it be the homeless, the unemployed, the abused, those suffering from mental illness, those with dependence issues etc. We also know and understand that we all have role to play, be it big or small, and that we cannot just leave to someone else to sort it out. From the Gospels, we know that it is through giving that we will receive, so through giving to others, we find a place in the Kingdom of God. We call on the Church to send a message that we need to be less selfish, less self-centred, in this modern world, where for many, material goods and gain is so easy. The buy now, pay later attitude sees many not having to consider those around them, our community, or the natural world. We need to call on all people to consider those around us, rather than just ourselves. We also would hope that the Church continues to be a big voice for the people regardless of their faith.
4	Parish: Need for elected Parish Pastoral Council at OLA; greater inclusion of people of all cultures and backgrounds; visiting the home bound and local nursing homes; youth visits through schools to ageing parishioners; roster to drive aged/disabled parishioners to Sunday Mass; reaching out to homeless and poor with clothes/blankets/soup kitchens. National: Defend right-to-life issues; greater inclusion of people of all cultures and backgrounds; make Mass more appealing to youth/children.
7	How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church in Australia that is: A joyful, hope-filled servant community. Celebrate our joy as a servant community through a focus in all parishes on mission to the marginalised and poor through establishing and promoting youth vinnies in schools and parishes. Make sure that each parish has a youth minister who has been appropriately trained and is a spiritual person Religious education in schools should promote an understanding of a relational God and a universal Christ to be found in all peoples and all things. It should include and promote traditional spiritual practices, encourage participation in parishes and engage the young in the mission of social justice. Parishes nationally to focus on programs of evangelisation such as alpha Promote a variety of prayer practices through skilled training available in each parish and in schools.
7	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Involving the youth and children in Mass by preparing evening Masses with opportunities to participate fully in the Mass, aimed at a younger understanding that will appeal to the children and encourages parent attendance as well. 2. Better teaching of faith in schools and more opportunities for faith formation of adults. 3. Priests need to be educated on how to relate to ordinary people, and better able to provide clearer communication/information about what the church is doing, (some problems understanding international priests).

6	1. Individual parishioners agree to providing anonymous financial support annually, for a child identified from one of our parish schools as being in need of support. 2. The strength of the church comes from the individual strengthening of self – make positive individual changes to create changes in the church itself. 3. Through the Church proactively identifying projects and local charities (for example Salvos/Vinnies/Reading for Life), publishing them in the newsletter and having collections to raise money to support their work.
25	Continue strongly believing that the nature of the Church ensures her survival.
15	We serve our Church best when we act to invite the marginalised and preserve Church Teaching so as to ensure her medicinal healing nature.
6	To be a Joyful, hope-filled servant church we recommend that we look to developing more life-giving liturgies that uplift and enhance Australian culture.
6	At a local level we need networking, community groupings eg Family, liturgy, Baptism, Consolation, Care and Concern teams. We also need Diocesan gatherings where people across the diocese gather for speakers and small workshops
9	Create opportunities, nationally and locally, to share individual faith journeys: e.g. interstate Youth festival Similar events can be held at diocesan levels on various topics Youth and adult faith formation: eg bible study activities, discussion groups on Pope’s statements, rosary meditation on life of Jesus, with hymns. Provide opportunities / broader offerings for community service: eg junior Vinnies. Promote importance of such action through formation based on Scripture. Bring back the 3rd rite of reconciliation. Exposure to a variety of prayer forms as part of public liturgy, e.g Taize prayer Greater attention to music in the liturgy: choice, volume... music should lead people to want to sing & give praise to God. A church that is inclusive of all – ‘come as you are’ yet many are hurting. Publicise that ‘all are welcome’ here Religious Education needs focus on the Gospels as Good News... simple language, relevant to our everyday living.
